

MR. AND MRS. HAMILTON DEAN JOSEPH BOURG, III.

Bourg-Kergosien Vows Heard in Saturday Rites

Gold vases of white summer stock, fragrant chrysanthemums and tiny pom-pom mums and tall white wicker baskets of the same blossoms adorned the altar and sanctuary of Our Lady of the Gulf Church at 10 a.m. Saturday for the nuptial ceremony uniting Miss Lynette Marie Kergosien, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Kergosien of this city, and Hamilton Dean Joseph Bourg, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Thomas Possentino of Thibodeaux.

Rev. Kevin Reid performed the double ring ceremony and a program of nuptial music was provided by Prof. Joseph Hammersbach.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional long gown of imported tulle and summer silk taffeta. The fitted bodice was fashioned with short cap sleeves and a sabrina neckline. The bouffant skirt was appliqued with tulle in a fleur de lis pattern and a large back bustle of tulle fell into a chapel length train. Her veil of silk illusion was held by a tiara of seed and drop pearls and she carried a crescent bouquet of stephanotis' fleur d'amour and English ivy centered with a white orchid.

Miss Juanita Hymel, of New Orleans, maid of honor, wore a short frock of beige silk organza fashioned with a fitted bodice and a full skirt featuring a band of embroidery at the hem. Her headpiece was a sequined coronet in a burnt orange shade and she carried a cascade bouquet of orange fusi mums, and English ivy.

Dale Hotard of Jennings, La., served as Mr. Bourg's best man, and ushers were Ashely Arment of Thibodeaux and Everett Kergosien of Bay St. Louis, cousin of the bride.

A reception followed at the parish hall where arrangements of white stock and fragrant mums were used in the reception area. Mrs. Ogden Kergosien, in a white summer sheath, and Mrs. A. Possentino, wearing a blue dress sheath, assisted the couple in receiving. Both wore bouquets of fleur d'amour.

an arrangement of the same flowers flanked by silver candelabra holding pink espers.

Polly At Waveland

We have an occasion blasted team-agers because they have fits when Tony Thines is omitted from one issue of the paper—yet only a very few are willing to take time and trouble to help your reporter gather news for the column which I am frankly much too old to write anyway—now we're going to let older readers have a taste of the same—when the possibility of organizing a Golden Age Club was mentioned it was at the request of a number of callers and writers—we received quite a few replies and one offer of a meeting place (Bay Boating) - people we meet on the street express interest and that's all—IF you want a Golden Age Club, let's get on the ball and set the date for a meeting—I'm even willing to try to find an extra hour or two out of my normal 36-hour day and attend the first meeting, but we must have at least one volunteer as temporary chairman and a large hall for the session. Anyone interested is asked to call either HO 7-4231 or HO 7-5474, and we'll schedule our initial get-together on or about Sept. 7 depending upon the availability of a meeting place. This will allow a little over two weeks for dietary Golden Agers to call or write and we hope to have the definite time, place and interim chairman lined up for next week's column. . . . Just remember it's up to you —if you want a club you'll have to pitch in and help get the show on the road.

Chaperoning the Scouts

Phyl Lagasse, Dot Markel, Ann Shippey and Vield Becker are no doubt having a lively time in Washington, D. C.—they're chaperoning a large group of Girl Scouts on a tour of the Capital City. It was sort of a frantic weekend for Dot as she and Merita dashed to New Orleans Friday to attend her niece's wedding Saturday, then back to Waveland to depart for Washington Sunday. Anniversary congratulations to summer residents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Abadie who celebrated Friday night. . . . they have ten children, but don't know if they accompanied their parents on their "second honeymoon" or not.

Get well wishes (belatedly, as they are both much better now), to Mrs. James Robert who had a virus and Mrs. Ray Gordon, who thinks the heat caused her to run temperature for several weeks. Also to Marcelle (Mrs. Charles) Bradley—she too has been under the weather.

Reahle Peterson gets our admiration as holder of the week—the supplied over a total of 228 calls substituting in league bowling competition.

We'll bid a reluctant part of part-time farewell to Peggy and Floyd Hepping, who are returning to New Orleans to make their home, although they'll retain their Nicholson Avenue dwelling for weekend use. . . . Peggy, who has been teaching the rudiments of dispensing charm at a Crescent City modelling school two days a week, is working full time and commuting because too much of a problem.

Bay Side of the News

Mrs. W. F. Simpson who was the guest of her sister, Miss Lucille Se. Amant for two weeks, returned to her home in New Orleans Sunday. . . . her two sons, Bill and Dudley and their families drove over to take "mammas" home.

Polly and Joe Congett and Georgia Peavey took in a bull fight during their trip to Mexico—they agreed it was novel, but a bit too bloodthirsty for their tastes. Best Wagner will now have to be content in as a resident of the Bay, having moved into her "new" Waveland Street home last Saturday. Wondered why we hadn't heard from our gardening friends, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hayes 'til someone told us they're indulging in their alternate hobby, fishing, these days.

Frank Trapani is off again—he and several buddies departed for Beaumont, Texas, and the Dupes fight Tuesday. Friends, neighbors and relatives are enjoying the John Scheris' lovely new swimming pool. Mrs. Winfield Partidge has just returned from a visit to her home town, Tell City, Ind. and Chicago, Ill. Ernie Niolet left for his Fort Lauderdale, Fla., home Tuesday—returning with him were his mother-in-law, Mabel Piazza and three children, who have been guests of Fran and Albert Piazza.

Another Jack Benny

Thoroughly enjoying his '36th birthday Sunday was the youngest child grown on record—Jack Holm. . . . this distinction acquired as he and lovely wife Winde recently observed their 25th wedding anniversary—they lunched at Haverly's and were fêted at dinner by the Humphries, Yvonne and Jack.

On the Sports Front

We'll quote our old buddy Brewster Mollere for this bit—when a salesman asked him if the fish were biting his reply—"If they were, you wouldn't see me here—I'd be out catching them!"—and so.

HOME WITH THE BACON - Prize winning crew of the yacht Windy, Ed Hawkins, Maj. Charles V. DeLam and Richard Peterson display trophies caught in the South Pass Tarpon Run. Awards were first place sail fish tipping the scales at 53 1/2 pounds and third place tuna, 76 pounds, caught by Hawkins, second place tuna, 109 pounds, Peterson's catch and a first place dolphin pulled in by Major DeLam.

The Joseph Offmancourts spent last week in their Pompano Beach summer home, George Penning and Roland Rabbe are among those bemoaning the fact that vacations ended Monday.

Gertrude and Jack Toomey are sporting just about the best looking brand new automobile in town. . . . It's pale blue and a beauty. . . . Jim Mayfield isn't quite as happy—his new vehicle is a truck, but it has a truck.

Complaint of the Week

The metal pseudo-police placed at strategic points along Beach Blvd. to protect groups of campers when crossing the street are necessary to realize and are grateful for their silencing the noise of otherwise speedy drivers—SUT—when darkness falls, they become traffic hazards as they have no reflectors and are in upon them before they can be seen at night—most are mounted on heavy three-wheels and could cause a severe accident—so please remove these obstacles once the last child has come in from swimming—and replace same in the morning!

Adorable "Ced" (short for Cedric) Gilly also celebrated this month—we're normally a bit inebriated about the charms of tiny babies, but at a few days less than one year, that little syle is loaded with personality. Summer residents, the Ed Gillys, are her proud parents.

Welcome home Mrs. Carl Gustafson—the's really feeling the heat, having just returned from Chicago, Ill.

Thelma and Charles Dickson are now settled in their brand new Central Avenue abode. Speaking of new possessions—Ann and Henry Deville are sporting a gorgeous new peacock blue automobile. We've been asked to list an additional COMPLAINT this week—it's a subject being considered prices charged weekenders and summer residents for yard work. . . . to keep everybody happy, we suggest that a man should be agreed upon by high parties before work begins to prevent misunderstandings.

BY RAE COPE
HO-7-5897
Haverly Hughes was on a merry-go-round of excitement last week when relatives from Chahoway and Pouchanville, La., came over for tea and traffic along the Gulf Coast. They enjoyed a good catch of bass at Peg's Ferry on Back Bay, Biloxi; took a trip aboard the Pan American Clipper and spent the day at Ship Island over the weekend. With so many water sports on the agenda, they thought it only fitting to wind up on Friday at Haverly's for one of their Fishermen's Platter dinners—the most delicious part of their trip.

The J. P. Rousseaux returned from a day or two with her mother, Mrs. Bern in New Orleans, to find three puppies and a grown dog had been dumped in their yard. This is the time of year when our summer population think of abandoning the kittens and puppies which have kept their children entertained throughout the summer. SPCA advertisements in papers and over TV for cats and dogs reared with children—they have a waiting list—don't abandon your children's playmates. Take them to the SPCA that other children may claim them for their own.

Looking Forward to 81

Thomas W. Hooley of Clermont Boulevard, entertained his daughter, Janella, her husband Stan Michelle, another daughter, Rita, and Miss Schenck over the weekend. Mr. Hooley's health has improved; he announces he will celebrate his 81st birthday on Jan. 14, 1963. While he no longer skips his yacht Janella, named for his late wife, he has his friend Tom Thum skipper them around to the best fishing places when his son Tom, Jr., is not over from N. O.

Rosemary Hungate had the finishing touches put on her house on Water Street last week—the wrought iron railings for the steps had to be specially made as the measurements did not coincide with ready-made railings. They not only look fine but give a safe and secure mode of being as others and leaves the premises. Mary and Joe Rousseaux and I tried them out last Saturday when we were invited over to Rosie's to lunch. Capt. John Wiesend celebrated his birthday Sunday; Rosie gifted him with a long length of plastic hose in honor of the occasion.

Miss Rita Hooley entertained a group of young ladies from New Orleans at a pleasant vacation party at the family home on the Blvd. recently. They enjoyed fishing, crabbing and had several hot sessions of canasta. Cooking was NOT on the agenda; they sought a good eating places and toured the coast. Good news is that Rita's doctors have given their permission for her to return to work for three to five hours a day; her accident two years ago in September has kept her inactive for months. She is happy also to be able to drive her car again. The broken right arm and hip have mended completely. Rita's guests were Misses Dorothy Charvin, Mary Smedley, Lydia Hernandez, Almee Ann Reardon and Elfrida Pitzer.

Comeback from Freeze

The W. J. Tonglets ceased the interior decorating activities long enough for a breather and to entertain Effie's sister, Mrs. Fay Abrams of Tallulah, La., for a week. They took Mrs. Abrams to visit their sister, Mrs. Rita Serra, in N. O. Friday and spent a couple of days before returning home. The Tonglets report some of the tropical plants they considered lost in last January freezing weather are making a good comeback in their greenhouse.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Proctor last week were Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Proctor.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Proctor have as guests their daughter, Mrs. D. S. Vickers and children Donald, Helen and Robert of Atlanta, Ga. Weekend guests were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Fraser and son, Craig, of New Orleans.

The Joe Orlanians of New Orleans arrived at Miss Rita Cue's Sunday to admire the new view.

Biloxi Pair Injured In Crash on U.S. 90

Two Biloxi residents were injured and two cars demolished in a collision about 11 a.m. Monday on U.S. 90, 10 miles west of Bay St. Louis, Deputy Sheriff C. V. Price, Jr., investigating officer, reported.

Injured were Maj. Joseph A. Benzeza, 44, who received lacerations of the scalp, and Frances P. Benzeza, 52, who suffered a whiplash neck. Both were treated at Hancock General Hospital and released.

The couple were traveling east on 90 in a 1962 Oldsmobile driven by Maj. Benzeza, when a 1950 Buick sedan driven by Leonard Creekmore, 35, of New Orleans, moving west, swerved into the lane of oncoming traffic forcing the Benzeza car onto the shoulder of the road, striking it on the left side, Price said.

Creekmore was booked with driving under the influence of alcohol, Deputy Price said, and fined $100.

Two New Orleans Negroes received minor injuries Aug. 14, when their 1954 Buick skidded off U.S. 90, a quarter mile east of the road-side park, and smashed into a tree.

Injured were August Jackson, 23, driver, and Carroll Hensley, 31, Highway Patrolman C. F. Blanton said a trailer truck passing the Jackson car during a downpour splashed muddy water across the latter's windshield, causing him to lose control of the car.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Lumb of Miami, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cook of New Orleans, who were critically injured two weeks ago in a two-car collision on U.S. 90, are reported in good condition at Hancock General Hospital where they have been under treatment since the accident.

LIPSCOMB MANAGERS - Wayne Davis, Mississippi Southern graduate, and wife Cathy examine appliances they will handle as managers of Lipscomb's appliance store, formerly Bud's, at 111 N. Second St. Highlighting Saturday's grand opening of this fourth Lipscomb establishment will be free pony rides, candy, gifts and two appearances by Wayne Mack, New Orleans television personality. Owner Gerry Lipscomb, his wife and six children are summer residents of Waveland.

R.H. Ladner Regains Post With Patrol

Ray Harold Ladner, son of Raymond Ladner of Waveland, was restored to duty on the State Highway Patrol Friday after a three-month battle in his behalf by Wadhall County citizens.

Ladner and Travis Lott, another patrolman also working Wadhall County, were suspended on charges of misconduct by Col. T. B. Birdsong in May pending investigation of the case. Lott was later reassigned to duty, Ladner discharged, as Birdsong contended he was not entitled to a hearing as he had been on the patrol only 11 months.

A group of Wadhall citizens headed by attorney Breed O. Moutner, armed with petitions with 1,025 signatures, stating that Ladner had been wrongly accused, conferred twice with Gov. Ross Barnett and Birdsong.

Gov. Barnett said Ladner resigned Tuesday to take another job, and Moutner confirmed that he had been granted back pay, cleared of the charges and would return to his home county.

3 Newcomers Have Leads In Next Play

Three newcomers to the local stage have been assigned leading roles in the Little Theatre's next production, I Like It Here, which will be presented Thursday through Saturday, Sept. 6-8.

They are Herbert Winkelman, Mrs. L. W. Hart and Joseph Marchionni.

Paul M. White, Jr., director, said supporting roles will be played by Miss Clea Kay Miller, Kees Brameyer and Donald Moutner, who have appeared in previous plays; veteran thespians Basil Cockshot and Curtis Matherne, and Millie Ling who will be making her theater debut.

The three-act comedy was written by A. B. Shiffria.

While the theater is sponsored and supported principally by its members, the public is invited to the plays. Admission can be purchased at the Boardman Avenue playhouse on nights of performance at $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children under 12. No seats are reserved.

YC Nips Summy, Strong Paces Fahey

Youth Center spotted Summy Signs a 4-0 lead, then rallied to score a 5-4 victory, their 19th straight win in league competition, Saturday night in the first game of a Pony League doubleheader. Fahey's Mike Servino pitched a one-hit shutout and homered to account for the game's only run as his club edged the Sea Coast Echo Scoops 1-0 in the nightcap.

Youth Center, after losing Summy go ahead 4-0 in the top of the first, scored twice in their half of the opening frame and won in the third with three markers when Joe Ziegler walked, Stanley Weidmann doubled, and several errors were committed. Summy's four-run first was highlighted by singles by Billy Thomas and Ned Heath.

Danny Krankey was the winning pitcher for Youth Center, and Dean Taylor the loser. Strong was in complete control.

Local Girl Scouts are enjoying the fruits of their many cake and candy sales in addition to other fund raising activities among those leaving for Washington, D. C. Sunday were Marsha and Amy Lynch, Mary and Suzanne De Blanc, Mary Ann Becker and Jeanne and Jay Lagasse. Of course Jay isn't a Girl Scout, she just went along for the ride.

Faye Menti, short field for Our Lady of the Gulf's undefeated softball team, walked off with the title "queen of batting averages" as she ended the official season (play-offs are now in progress) with a staggering .528. If that gal had been male, she'd have already been signed by a major league scout. She's that good. Jeannette Kimball (nee Menti) was second, but hadn't participated in enough games to make it official. Next were two Waveland girls, Georgette Stutz (Jerome's) and Paula Crider. Mollere's Realty's third baseman with .525 and .511 respectively.

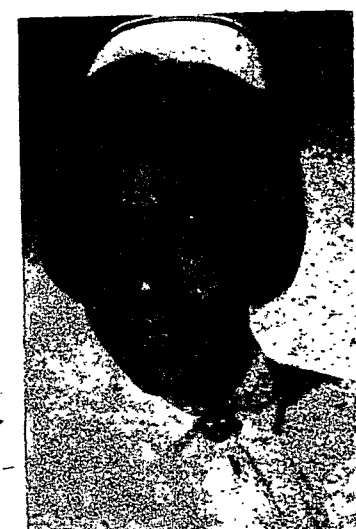

Accompanying their mother, Mrs. Leo Moran to New Orleans Friday were Terri and Kathleen, who were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Schubert.

summed in the second contest, allowing only one safe blow, a double by Al Jacobl. Strong's round tripper in the third, and singles by Mosti Rhodes, David Chisoy and Strong were the only hits off the hurrying of the Scoops' Chuck Wagner, losing pitcher.

Youth Center, in a single game Thursday afternoon, got no-hit pitching from Gary Ness in downing Fahey's 9-0 in a three inning contest. The league leaders pushed across two runs in the first and erupted for seven more in the third. Joony Collier paced the attack with two hits, both singles. Vincent Cuevas smashed a triple, and Ross Maurigi collected a single for the game's only hits.

In a doubleheader last Tuesday, the Echo Scoops won a 5-0 forfeit decision over Summy Signs and Youth Center defeated Fahey Drug 10-9. The latter game saw scoring in every inning. Youth Center coming from behind with four runs in the final frame to eek out a win over the same team which had beaten them two days before in the all-day city tournament finals.

Mollere, Jerome Battle for Slot

Mollere's Realty and Jerome's battled at 8 p.m. today in the deciding game of their best-two-out-of-three semifinals Women's Softball playoff series, the winner to meet Our Lady of the Gulf in the championship series beginning Sunday night.

OLG showed exactly how they went through the regular season undefeated by sweeping to two straight wins over Moran's, fourth in regular league play, while Mollere's, third during the season, and Jerome's, runners-up to OLG, split a pair of games facing another contest tonight.

Bombers and the Bums

The 1962 major league baseball season soon moving into its final stretch, the Los Angeles Dodgers and New York Yankees are the National and American Leagues. Neither team is a favorite, as two clubs have good chances of catching the Dodgers and the Bums.

Two weeks ago we applied our flux to the L. A. Dodgers, and it was a work, Los Angeles leading five straight and their lead over the Yankees. As this week started, Los Angeles led the Yankees by 3 1/2 games, with the defending champion Red Sox another three games back.

Los Angeles is playing the best ball in the league, coming from behind the thick of the pennant fight. Last year's league champion, Frank Robinson, is leading the surge and has two pitchers, Joey Jay and Bob Purkey, almost 20 games. With plenty of hitting, strong young pitching, speed, adequate defense, and the experience of a tight ballgame must be considered a threat to the pace-setting Yankees.

Mays Needed

Los Angeles, still maintaining the best chance of overtaking the Yankees, has always managed to fold in the stretch. The Yankees have a long flag since transferring West from New York. The Yankees fans think this should be the year. With good pitching, Billy Pierce, Billy O'Dell, and Juan Marichal, the Giants lack only in the need of another good right-hander. With Willie Mays, and speed is excellent with Willie Mays, the Yankees could pitch, the Giants would win for sure, but he can't—he'd better do a powerful job of hitting.

The American League the Yankees continue to be pressed by the Los Angeles Angels, the biggest baseball surprise in years. In some devilish way, have combined fair hitting, speed, and fair fielding into a good baseball team. Los Angeles started good this year behind the pitching of Bo Belinsky, fast-pitching, fast-talking lefthander who, at the rate he is going, will never be an Angel again once he retires. Belinsky has a key kid could pitch, the Giants would win for sure, but he can't—he'd better do a powerful job of hitting.

Regarding Belinsky, we've heard comments and read articles about the southpaw, and how he is returning to baseball the color than it now has, but some of the things Belinsky has done are just too much. As long as he limits his antics to the base, he is well and good, but Hollywood streets at 5 a. m. something else. Anyway, a warning to Bo: If you mound your antics don't improve you're going to find yourself leaving the team, and all your movie-star "associates".

Bay Stars at College

Two Bay boys have assured themselves spots on Southeastern Conference football teams this season, one representing St. Stanislaus and the other, Bay High.

Bill Watts, former all-conference fullback from Bay High, and the stand-out at Pearl River Junior College last season, transferred to Tulane and has won plenty of praise from the Green Wave coaches. Fullback J. E. Loiacano, an SSC all-star, also at Mississippi State, after winning Little All-American last season also with Pearl River.

The Tulane '62 football book, edited by Green Wave sports information director, Charley Thornton, gives indications that Watts is counted on a lot by new head coach Tommy O'Boyle. Among the comments about Watts: "Was all-conference performer (at PRC) in the defensive stand-out. Best punt snapper on squad. Has good punt and certain to see lots of duty this fall. Good student."

Although the 215-pound, 6-2, 20-year-old junior is listed as a defensive end, he'll surely see more action at a defensive linebacker post, he has not at Pearl River. Tulane plays the toughest schedule in the nation, and before the season ends, with games against such schools as Alabama, LSU, Mississippi, and Texas, all ranked in the top five nation-wide at the completion of last year on all counts. To repeat as strong clubs this year, we'll bet Coach O'Boyle will wish he had ten boys like Bill Watts.

Loiacano ran well in spring practice at State, and will be used by the Bulldogs. He's big and powerful, and is very effective in the line. Looks like local talent is really holding its own.

Southern Realty Upset

IE, Reinike Collide For Playoff Title

Industrial Electric, attempting to become the Cinderella team of the Bay Softball League, upset heavily-favored Southern Realty 5-3 Monday night, winning the first best-two-out-of-three semifinal playoff series and earning the right to meet Reinike for the championship starting last night. The Dirt Dabbers had reached the finals with successive victories over Trapani last Wednesday and Friday.

Monday's lone contest, played before one of the largest and most excited crowds of the season, found Industrial Electric, fourth-place finishers in the regular season, cashing in on most of their opportunities and putting down several Southern Realty threats. A three-run outburst in the fifth broke a 2-2 deadlock and provided Industrial with its winning margin.

Southern Realty fell behind 2-1 in the first inning, but evened the count in the fifth on singles by Jim Mayfield, Toy Tedford and Ronnie Peterson. With runners on second and third and only one out, however, they couldn't score again. Industrial then rallied for their three runs in the last of the fifth behind singles by Fred Scarborough, Harold Pavolini and Donald Strong and a two-run double by Billy Murphy.

The excitement reached a peak in the top of the seventh when Southern Realty, as they have so often done, threatened to get back in the game. An error opened the door with one out and Jim Mayfield drilled a single to left bringing the tying run to the plate. A long outfield fly accounted for the second out, but Don Caldwell lined a single to center driving home a run, and advancing Ronnie Peterson, one of the league's top clutch hitters, to the plate. Peterson, though, flied to deep center and Industrial had the ball game.

Red Davis was the winning pitcher for Industrial and Caldwell took the loss on the mound for Southern Realty.

Friday night Reinike clinched a spot in the finals with a 7-2 victory over Trapani, after having downed the Traps Wednesday in the first game. Five players had two or more hits for the winners with Buddy Pitale leading the way with 3-4. Red Reinike was 2-3, and Johnny McDonald, Bobby Fayard and J. V. Morreale were all 2-4. Trapani, although scoring only twice, blasted 14 hits, led

Basil Kennedy Wins

GP-14 At Pensacola

Basil Kennedy won the GP-14 series with Sarah Dale McFarland in second place at the Five-Flag Regatta last weekend at Pensacola, Fla., Yacht Club.

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. McFarland and Capt. H. W. Kinney represented Bay-Waveland Yacht Club in the fish class races.

Others motoring over for the regatta were Mrs. Kinney and son, Tut, Mrs. G. S. Kennedy, Rosemary and Wesley McFarland, Jr., Judy Reeves, Bill Charbonnet, Duncan Lamb and Aline Andry.

By J. D. Peterson's 3-3 output, Henry Monti collected three hits in four bats and Louis Jacobi was 2-3.

Charley Carter hurled the distance for the winners, putting down several Trapani threats. The loser for the Traps who never led in the game was Claude Yarbrough.

Industrial, losers in the first game of their series Wednesday with Southern Realty, set the stage for Monday's rubber game with an 8-4 victory Friday to even things at one win apiece.

Leading the 17-hit Industrial attack were Fred Scarborough, Harold Pavolini and Donald Strong, each with 2-4 hits, led

Little League Opens Playoffs on Friday

The Junior Sheriffs scored two runs in the fourth inning Monday afternoon, and downed Coast Electric 4-2 in the first of two Little League games played at City Hall Park, 7-Up, behind no-hits pitching by Jackie Strong, roped Gulf Coast Express 15-3.

The Electric-Kids took an early lead over the Junior Sheriffs when Davy Compretta and Greg Pressnell singled after an error. The lawmen fought back, however, in the third, tying the score without a base hit, and the winning markers were scored on a triple by Terrill Lafontaine with two runners aboard.

Hitting safely for the winners were Lafontaine, Sylvan Lerner, and Redo, with the latter two collecting one single each.

7-Up, in the nightcap, made only four hits but took advantage of most of their opportunities to run up a big score.

Perry Stephens, Ronnie Martin, Don Lerner and Steve Davis all had one-base hits for 7-Up, while Strong's pitching capped Gulf Coast Express from getting any safe blows.

In Pony League activity Tuesday night, Youth Center won their 20th victory in succession after a loss in their first game of the season, edging the Sea Coast Echo Scopes 3-1 behind fine pitching of Joemy Collier.

Youth Center scored single runs in the second, third, and fifth innings and were never headed. Russ Mauritz scored the first run for the winners when, after reaching first on a single, Carol Chiniche's

The Reds scored the tying and winning runs in the last of the fourth when Carole Grider singled and scored ahead of a teammate on a four-base error. The Reds had built up a 3-1 lead in the first two innings but the Blues went ahead 4-3 with two runs in the third and a single marker in the fourth inning. The Reds then scored their two winning runs.

Carol Chiniche stroked a double and home run to pace the winning attack and Charles Benigno connected for a triple and single. Cynthia Kramley had a double for the losers and Lisa Monti, Marsha Compretta and Mary Jo Jacob all had singles.

Confabs Due

(Cont. from Page 1.) Mobile Tuesday toward purchase of the 11,300-odd acres the company holds in the test site, O.B. Moore, local real estate project manager, indicated further negotiations will be necessary. This is the largest tract to be secured in the fee zone which comprises some 13,500 acres. The engineers have not yet reached a position to talk with Crosby Forest Products, Inc., about its holdings there, Moore added.

During the last week purchase has been completed of six more tracts bringing the total number acquired to date to 64 at a cost in excess of half a million dollars. Acropage acquired a new stand at $371.36.

Least changes are Boyce Pearson, 1 acre, $10,600; Tommy Patch, 1.91 acres, $9,500; Daniel M. Potter and David Pritchard, .24 acre, $4,600; Minnie Wood Hall, .93 acres, $6,050; Alvin Smith, .24.25 acres, $16,900; and Ivory Davis, .645 acres, $13,225. Total purchase price is $300,667.50.

Moore declined to discuss progress on securing options, saying only that his office is initiating appraisal contacts in the buffer zone at this stage. Dr. J. F. Ferguson, chairman of the test site property owners committee, confirmed he has signed an option at "a satisfactory price" for his 300-acre farm on Flattop Road in the buffer zone.

Confabs Due

(Cont. from Page 1.) Mobile Tuesday toward purchase of the 11,300-odd acres the company holds in the test site, O.B. Moore, local real estate project manager, indicated further negotiations will be necessary. This is the largest tract to be secured in the fee zone which comprises some 13,500 acres. The engineers have not yet reached a position to talk with Crosby Forest Products, Inc., about its holdings there, Moore added.

During the last week purchase has been completed of six more tracts bringing the total number acquired to date to 64 at a cost in excess of half a million dollars. Acropage acquired a new stand at $371.36.

Least changes are Boyce Pearson, 1 acre, $10,600; Tommy Patch, 1.91 acres, $9,500; Daniel M. Potter and David Pritchard, .24 acre, $4,600; Minnie Wood Hall, .93 acres, $6,050; Alvin Smith, .24.25 acres, $16,900; and Ivory Davis, .645 acres, $13,225. Total purchase price is $300,667.50.

Moore declined to discuss progress on securing options, saying only that his office is initiating appraisal contacts in the buffer zone at this stage. Dr. J. F. Ferguson, chairman of the test site property owners committee, confirmed he has signed an option at "a satisfactory price" for his 300-acre farm on Flattop Road in the buffer zone.
